

Royal Ballet editathon, 22 June, Royal Opera House

Feedback form – summary of responses

We received 5 feedback forms from 5 attendees to the Royal Ballet editathon.

Note: the feedback has been given a numerical value to aid analysis, with the bottom of the scale (eg: “very bad”) being given one and the top (eg: “very good”) a value of five.

1. How useful and relevant did you find the editathon?

Answer options	Not at all				Very useful	Mean rating
	0	0	0	2	3	4.60

One person included an additional comment, remarking that “It was great to be at the heart of the Royal Opera House editing Wikipedia! It was an amazing experience and I learned so much. (Please ensure this comment makes it into the next WMUK annual report, thanks ;- )”

2. How likely are you to continue editing Wikipedia?

Answer options	Very unlikely				Very likely	Mean rating
	0	0	0	1	4	4.80

One person included an additional comment, remarking that “since I have been editing since 2004 I am unlikely to stop as a result of this event - maybe worth screening initially to see if people are Wikipedians? ;- )”

3. How useful did you find the materials made available at the event?

Answer options	Not at all				Very useful	Mean rating
	0	0	1	1	3	4.40

4. Please write three words/expressions which describe this workshop for you?

The words chosen in this exercise were positive; the recurrence of the word fun (used three times) suggests people enjoyed the event while words such as “informative”, “fascinating”, and “interesting” indicate that people found the editathon engaging.

See Appendix 1 for further details.

5. Further comments - anything positive or negative that you would like to share!

Of the three responses to this question, one noted that the event went very well while the other two made suggestions for improvement. It was proposed that name badges would be helpful in future event and that the event could have gone on longer, by at least half an hour.

See Appendix 2 for further details.

6. If you would prefer your comments not be used in future Wikimedia UK publicity please box

Of the three responses to this question, two people said thank you for the event, and the third asked that they be kept informed with future events.

See Appendix 2 for further details.

Appendix 1: Please write three words/expressions which describe this workshop for you?

"classy, enjoyable, fun"

"friendly, fun, fascinating"

"feminine, informative, fulfilling"

"fun, interesting, new experience"

Appendix 2: Further comments - anything positive or negative that you would like to share!

"It was too short - we could have gone on another half an hour easily before hitting the pub."

"Name badges would have been useful, in hindsight"

Went very well - good welcome - good group. Probably helps that there were "low hanging fruit" on the subject to deal with :-)"
