We need your help!

Come in and help us create new pages, update and edit information and pictures on Wikipedia, to provide more articles and images on African fashion.

Part of our Fashioning Africa project, the event will include a first look at the Museum's new collection of post 1960's textiles and garments.

Learn how to edit Wikipedia, no web experience needed. Training and guidance will be provided by a Wikipedia staff member throughout the event.

This event is free, but places are limited and must be booked in advance: to find out more or book a place please email: Stephen Kisko, World Art Collections Assistant, Stephen.Kisko@brighton-hove.gov.uk (01273) 295861
